William Holly's biggest career challenge was starting his own firm and developing it into one of the area's top commercial office brokerage firms in two years.

One of his biggest career achievements was being name broker of the year for the best pre-leasing of a Brickell office building. Holly enjoys his industry everyday for it provides new opportunities and challenges.

Holly's primary goal next year, though, has nothing to do with his business.

"It's teaching my one-year-old how to swim," he said.
